BE PREPARED FOR YOUR EXAMS

Equipment

- All this equipment must be stored in a clear plastic case.
- No other material must be taken into any of the examination rooms.
- Remember to go to the toilet before the exam starts as you will not be allowed to go during the exam (unless you have a toilet pass).
- Arrive at your assembly area 15 minutes before the start of the exam.

Your final examination timetable will give you all the details you will need: dates, start and finish times etc.

Make sure you keep it somewhere safe!

DURING THE EXAMINATION

- Read the instructions on the front of the question and answer papers carefully so you understand what you need to do.
- Fill in any information on the front when advised to do so.

Tell the Invigilators immediately

- » If you think you have not been given the correct paper
- » If any of the materials (listed in a box on the front of the paper) are missing
- » If the paper is incomplete or badly printed

- Work carefully and write clearly.

Don't rush. Pace yourself – if you have two hours to answer four questions, for example, make sure you spend half an hour on each. Exam questions are carefully designed and tested – they should take the estimated length of time to complete.

Show all your working/rough work. Cross it through when you have completed. Hand in all your work.

Leave yourself 5-10 minutes at the end to read through and check all your answers. You can often find mistakes/omissions and put them right.

- During the exam, put your hand up if:
 - » You need an additional answer booklet
 - » You feel ill
 - » You have a particular problem and need assistance. Invigilators cannot explain any of the questions as this is part of your exam.
- At the end of the exam stop writing when you are advised to do so.

Make sure your name and exam number are on all answer books you hand in. If you have used more than one fasten them together with a treasury tag which an invigilator provide.

- Exam conditions DO NOT end until you have left the room.

Don't be tempted to talk/turn around/ communicate in any way with other people. Your paper could still be cancelled!

- You must not leave the exam room until you are advised to do so.

Once you have been dismissed, collect your belongings and leave the room quickly and quietly as other exams may be continuing.

Please refrain from:

- 1. Become involved in any unfair or dishonest practice in any part of the exam.

Malpractice situations will be reported to the exam board. Depending on the severity it may mean being disqualified from all your exam subjects.

- 2. Talk to or disturb other candidates in any way once the exam has begun.

- 3. Take into the exam room any unauthorised equipment – for example:

- Wrist watches.
- Mobile phones, MP3/4 Players, IPod's, Smartwatches or any other electronic devices with text/digital facilities.
- Ordinary pencil cases, notes etc.
- Calculator lids & instruction leaflets.
- Bags, Coats etc

- 4. Impersonate another candidate.

This is a criminal offence and is dealt with by the police. You may be prosecuted in a court of law.

Candidates have been disqualified from their exams in previous years due to their behaviour and mobile phones going off.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE ILL ON THE DAY OF AN EXAM

- If you are ill and are unable to attend an exam it is vital you phone the school first thing in the morning (01543 263446) to inform us.
- You must also obtain a letter or Form 10 (Self Certification Form) from your doctor detailing the reason for non-attendance. This should be given to the Examinations Officer within 3 days of the missed exam.
- If you are feeling unwell, but still able to travel, we suggest you attend the exam and we can assess the situation. In most cases it is better to take the exam if you can.
- If in doubt – PHONE THE SCHOOL

If you do not attend an exam without a valid reason, it is possible that you will be charged for that exam.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES FOR EXAMINATIONS

In the event of a fire alarm, the following procedures apply:

- Stop writing and remain silent.
- Listen carefully to the instructions given to you by the Examinations Officer/Invigilator
- All examination question/answer papers and materials should be left on the exam desk and NOT taken out. No bags or personal belongings including mobile phones and electronic devices should be taken out of the rooms.
- Remain calm and leave by the nearest fire exit. These are located at the rear of the sports hall. You should leave in single file, one row at a time starting at row one. You should stay at least one arm's length away from each another.
- You will be escorted to a safe area outside away from the main body of the school population, initially by the tennis courts.
- The invigilator will do a roll call to make sure everyone is accounted for.
- When the "all clear" has been given you will be escorted back to the sports hall in silence, where you will be re-seated.
- Once everyone has been accounted for the examination will be re-started with the appropriate time allowed.
- IMPORTANT – You are still under examination board conditions and under NO CIRCUMSTANCES should you communicate with one another. Any breach of regulations could mean disqualification from the examination.

EXAM CHECK LIST

Aim to arrive at school 15 minutes prior to the start of an exam. Leave yourself plenty of time in case of problems with the journey.

When taking exams, bags, coats and mobile phones should be left outside the exam room. Because of this, it is recommended that you do not bring valuables with you to the exam.

Students must not have watches, mobiles phones or any electronic devices in their possession . The exam board will be notified and given the details of the malpractice. They will rule if you are to be disqualified from the paper or the entire subject award.

You should bring with you the correct equipment needed to do your exams as these will not be provided. Only clear pencil cases are allowed on your exam desk.

In an exam where you have the use of a calculator, you should not have a calculator cover/lid on your desk.

Sshh!

There is absolutely no talking or communication between students once you enter the exam rooms. If you have any questions, you should raise your hand once seated and an invigilator will come to you.

You should wear your full school uniform for all your exams.

No food is allowed in the exam hall. If you have a special requirement – please see Mrs Haddock in the Exams Office before the exams.

Water bottles are allowed in the exam hall. These should be clear bottles with a spill-proof cap. There should be no label on the bottle.
