Dear Parent/Carer

National Theatre Live experience at Tamworth Odeon Cinema

As part of this year’s BTEC Performing Arts course, we aim to offer a number of theatrical experiences to our Performing Arts students. This is to enhance the students understanding of the theatre world and theatre etiquette, which in turn will help to enhance their outcomes at both GCSE and A level.

The first trip will be to watch a National Theatre Live performance of Chekhov’s ‘The Seagull’. This will be live screened from London into Tamworth’s Odeon cinema and is an exclusive performance, which will only be screened on that date.

The trip will take place on Thursday 3rd November. We are asking you to drop your child off at 6.45pm, ready for a 7pm screening at the cinema and collect them at approximately 9.50pm (screening should finish at 9.44pm). They will be escorted by myself and Mr Sault once they are at the cinema.

The price of this screening has been confirmed as £16. You may send some money for drinks and treats if you wish to do so.

For further information do not hesitate to contact the Performing Arts department.
